Stock and Money Market.

EXCLUSIVE TO THE EXCLUSIVE CREORICLE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22 .- During the entire week there has been a squeeze in cash gold. The supply of gold for daily use is small and steadily decreasing, under the absorbtion by the Treasury for duties. The supply is concentrated in a few hands enabling them to control the gold room. Relief to this scarcity will come shortly. Exchange very dull and nominal. The only feature of interest in Wall street to-day, was the squeeze in cash gold at opening. The borrowing rate was put up to a quarter by one of the Canards. A rumor that the November interest would be anticipated on Monday, caused it to fall to oneeighth. The rumor was denied, and the rate advanced as high as two for the use of gold till Monday. This manipulation completely demoralized foreign exchange. Gold opened at 12 a12, but late in the day became firm and closed at 13. The scarcity of gold has never been so marked as it has been to-day, and will remain so till the Treasury relieves the market. Governments quiet and firm.

Excesses of the Troops at Orleans.

[RECLUSIVE TO THE DAILY CERONICLE.] LONDON, Oct. 22 .- The Prussians occupying Orleans are committing such excesses that it is believed they are on the leaving that place and are determined to leave nothing to the inhabitants. The Prussians have been hastily sending towards Paris enormous quantities of cattle and large supplies of forage. Instances of extreme cruelty by the Prussians are reported from all parts of the country, which make the latter desperate and determined to take no prisoners.

Over thirty Prussian spies who have been arrested in defferent parts of France were brought here to-day.

The sub-Prefect of St. Quentin has arrived here, having resigned his office because the municipal authorities refused to defend the town the second time in case of an attack. In consequence of the refusal, the town was captured by the Prussians, who now hold it.

COMMUNICATED. The Representative of Knox County.

MESSRS. EDITORS: We of the country go in for anything that shall improve the material interest of Knoxville; that shall complete the railroads projected; that shall make our river navigable the year round; that shall give the various manufacturing interests of town work to do; that shall build up other much needed manufacturing interests that shall foster the school interests generally, and fill our agricultural college with students.

We are thankful to Horace Maynard for what he has done for us in the Halls of rated by the Board, and that in the event of the our National Legislature. Loyal citizens rejection of Capt. Bearden Col. Mariner is our and matters in relation to the Governof the county appreciate this, and in the town work on the new Court House, though but just commenced, has given something of an impetus to business. But there is much yet for him to do. Claims for loyal citizens are to be looked afterthe river to be improved and possibly adschool fund. Who so well prepared to do this as one who is an influential member of the dominant party in Congress? Send a man of the opposition there, and with ever so good intentions, he would fail of doing much for us from the fact of his being in a hopeless minority. Clearly then, Horace Maynard is the man for us in the coming Congress. Precisely for the same reason, we would send C. M. McGhee to Nashville. Though in the call made upon him it was in the interests of the people, still it is notorious that he is politically affiliated with the majority there, and for that very reason he could do more for us than any Republican we could send there. More towards the completion of our railroads, more towards giving the Agricultural College its dues and to placing the finances of the State upon an uniform basis. Besides, he has the social position and influence, the clear head and fine business talent that will make him a power to be felt in any legissancon and other strategic points and may march direct upon Lyons.

Therefore, let us ignore mere party claims, and vote for Col. McGhee, whose valuable services we, as a community, need, and should improve this opportunito avail ourselves of.

IMPORTANT LEGAL PROCEEDINGS.

The Fourteenth Amendment to be Enforced We are informed that on yesterday proceed ings were instituted in the United States Circuit Court for this district against the Hon. A. O. P. Nicholson Chief Justice, and Thos. A. R. Nelson and J. L. T. Sneed Judges of the Suprem Court of the State and Hon. Jos. B. Heiskell Attorney General and Reporter, by E. C. Camp. Esq., the district Attorney.

The proceedings are in the unture of y que warrante, and in substance recite, that said Judges and Attorney General are p burt of the State, determining causes, prescriting rules of practice and doing other duties incumbent upon such officers, and that they hold their offices in violation of the 3d section o amendment to the Constitution of the United States. The informations futher recite that each of said parties prior to 1861 held offices of honor and trust under the Constitution of the United States, and in assuming them took oaths to support the same, and that afterwards theyeach did engage in insurrection and rebellion and gave aid and comfort to the same. Whe re fore the information prays that said parties may appear before the Judges of said Circuit Court at Knoxville on the 2d Monday of January next, and answer and show by what warrant they claim to have, use or enjoy the office aforesaid, and pray judgment for their removal from said offices.

Process was yesterday served upon Chief Justice Nicholson, Judge Sneed and Attorney General Heiskell, Judge Nelson was not at home when the Marshal called.

The news that the proceedings had been instituted spread rapidly and caused much discussion and comment among the bar and citizens. It is probable that in view of these proceedings the Court will adjourn and await the action of the United States Court.

A REPLY BY CARLYLE.—The curious and "troublesome" style of Carlyle is said to be quite in contrast with his simple, straightforward way of talking. Hatred of shame is one of his notable characteristics. One evening, at a small literary gathering a lady, famous for her "muslin theology, was bewailing the wickedness of the Jews in not receiving our Savior, and ended her diatribe by expressing regret that He has not appeared in our own time. "How de, lighted," said she, "we should all be to throw our doors open to Him, and listen to His divine precepts! Don't you think so, Mr. Carlyle:

The sturdy philosopher,, thus appealed to, said, in his broad Scotch, "No, madam, I don't. I think that, had He come very fashionably dressed, with plenty of money and preaching doctrines palatable to the higher orders, I might have had the honor 'To meet our Savior;' but if He had come uttering His sublime precepts, and denouncing the Pharisees, and associating with the Publicans and lower orders, as He did, you would have treated Him much as
